Inform Dictator It Looks With Abhorrence Upon His Assumption of Powers

TO DISREGARD ELECTIONS

In View of Huerta's Course the Election Planned Will Not Be Regarded as Constitutional

NEW U. S. POLICY PROBABLE

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Captain Francis Inch, whose steamer, the Voltorno, was burned at sea with the loss of 136 lives, told his story of the disaster tonight. It is a plain seaman's tale but in it, line by line, the heroes of the disaster and the terrible ordeal through which passengers and crew passed are brought out all the more clearly, perhaps, because of the marked directness and simplicity with which the story is told.

From its beginning where the outbreak of the fire which spelled the doom of the Voltorno is recorded, the narrative runs without apparent omission of any silent fact, but one to the point where the blazing ship was abandoned, the last remaining passenger taken off and the captain and what was left of the crew boarded the waiting Koonland.

Captain Inch, however, does not say what caused the fire, reporting simply that the chief officer advised him at ten minutes before seven o'clock on the morning of Oct. 9th, of its existence below and that five minutes later the flames had burst through the forward hatches and were rapidly spreading.

Too Late To Save Watch.

Although all possible measures were at once taken to subdue the fire, the captain's story shows that it was even then too late to save the watch below. The men were trapped in the fore-cabin and burned to death there, their fellow sailors helpless to aid them.

Then came explosions which wrecked part of the mid-ship section of the steamer. The situation was plainly becoming desperate. The call for help by wireless had gone out as soon as the flames shot through the forward hatches and the crew was doing its fighting best to stay the progress of the blaze until assistance should come. Captain Inch tells of efforts to launch life-boats and the results and describes the arrival one by one of the rescuing crafts, summoned by wireless operators who worked until the fire caused an explosion that carried away the aerial apparatus and compelled the wireless men to cease their efforts.

Covers Progress of Fire.

The Voltorno's master covers in a few words the progress of the fire through the night the arrival of the rescue ships and their brave efforts to succor those aboard his doomed vessel.

It was announced tonight that the North German Lloyd Steamer Voltorno, forty-five survivors of the burning ship, arrived at Baltimore and that she should dock at Philadelphia some time Wednesday. The Steamer Grosse Kurfurst, with 165 survivors on board is due here tomorrow morning.

Sends Story by Wireless.

Captain Francis Inch of the Voltorno, sent his story of the disaster by wireless to New York from the Koonland, on which he is being brought to this port, to the officers of the Uranium Line here. Captain Inch's narrative tells of the discovery of fire at 6:50 a. m., October 9, in hold No. 1. Five minutes later flames were burning through No. 1 hatches, setting fire to the fore-cabin and all deck fittings, the captain continues. Efforts were made to extinguish the fire but it gained rapidly, reaching the height of the forward light and imprisoning the watch below, who were burned to death in the fore-cabin.

Captain Inch continues: "A series of explosions, wrecking the saloon and hospital amid ship, the compass and steering gear being also damaged by the explosions. I gave orders to get help by wireless as soon as the flames burst the watches.

Five Boats Are Lowered.

"It seemingly being impossible to save the ship, I had boats provisioned and swung out. The ship was rolling heavily. Boats Nos. 13 and 5 were smashed but No. 2 was lowered in the water with cabin passengers and stewardess in charge of Chief Officer H. P. Miller. After this boat left the ship she capsized, throwing her occupants into the water. She afterwards righted herself and several of the crew got back into the boat, the chief officer being

HEPBURN ATTACKS WILSON MEASURE

Declares Owen-Glass Currency
Bill Was Born In a Caucus and Cradled In Politics

CONFERENCE OPENS IN N. Y.

Legislators Clash With Bankers at National Conference On Currency Reform Which Holds Opening Session In New York

OWEN AND GLASS DEFEND THE PLAN

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Declaring that the Owen-Glass currency bill, now before congress was born in a caucus and cradled in politics since its inception, A. Barton Hephburn, chairman of the Chase National Bank of New York, today attacked the Wilson administration measure.

Mr. Hephburn was one of the speakers at the national conference which opened here today under the auspices of the New York Academy of political science. At the conference leading figures in the administration's fight for the currency bill clashed with bankers opposed to the measure.

Senator Robert L. Owen, sponsor in the senate for the currency bill; Representative Carter Glass, who led the fight for the bill in the house and Representative Robert J. Bulkley of Ohio, member of the house committee on banking and currency, defended the administration plan. Arthur Reynolds, of Des Moines, president of the American Bankers' association and Mr. Hephburn spoke for the bankers opposed to the bill. Representative Glass was unable, on account of illness to attend the conference and the speech he had prepared was read into the record.

The debate revolved largely about the wisdom of compelling national banks to join in the proposed system, under penalty of losing their charters and on the assertion that designation of the members of the federal reserve board by the president would open the way to political domination of the banking business.

"I am not specially fearful of political control," Mr. Hephburn said, turning aside from his prepared speech to emphasize his point. "I am not even especially fearful of incompetent control. But inasmuch as this bill was born in a caucus and cradled in politics from its inception, business men, bankers and the public in general may be pardoned for having some misgivings whether politics may not have a part in its management."

SEC. WOODS ORDERS BALLOTS DESTROYED AND NEW ONES PRINTED

County Clerk Heinrich of Peoria Will Ignore Secretary of State's Telegram.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 14.—A bomb was exploded in Republican circles today when County Clerk Heinrich (Republican) received a telegraphic order from Secretary of State Woods (Democrat) to have the official ballots which had already been printed for the judicial election on October 20 destroyed and new ones printed with the Democratic column leading, the Progressive party second, Republican party third, Socialist fourth and Prohibition fifth.

On the advice of Judge Stone and others, and after conferences with Republican leaders, County Clerk Heinrich decided to ignore the telegram from Secretary of State Woods and will use the ballots as printed. In Republican circles it is regarded as unwarranted partisan interference on the part of Governor Dunne and Secretary Woods, representing the Democratic administration. The order in which County Clerk Heinrich has the parties listed is: Republican, Democratic, Progressive, Prohibition and Socialist.

NAMES OF LORIMER AND HINES USED IN TRIALS

WILL PLAY PART IN TRIAL OF AT-TORNEY DONAHOE

Are Charged With Having Conspired to Induce J. C. Henning to Sue Clarence S. Funk For Alienation of Mrs. Henning's Affections—Suit is Brought After Funk Testifies That Hines Told Him It Had "Cost $100,000 to Put Lorimer Over."

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—The names of former United States Senator Wm. Lorimer and Edward Hines, millionaire lumberman, will play a part in the trials of Attorney Daniel Donahoe and Detective Isaac Steifel, charged with conspiring to defame Clarence S. Funk.

Donahoe and Steifel are charged with having conspired to induce John C. Henning, a bell boy, to sue Funk for $25,000, charging the alienation of Mrs. Henning's affections. The suit which was brought after Funk had testified that Hines had told him it "cost $100,000 to put Lorimer over," was dismissed.

While examining Henry C. Corbin, the first witness, Assistant State's Attorney Bell mentioned the name of the former United States senator.

"The names of Senator Lorimer and Edward Hines," he began slowly. "Your honor," interrupted Attorney Joseph Barrs for the defense, "Senator Lorimer is not connected with this case and his name should not be used. The defense objects to it."

"I don't mean that he is connected with the case," continued the state's attorney, "but his name will be used during the trial." The defense continued the objections, which were overruled by the court.

"Could the name of Senator Lorimer prejudice you one way or the other?" continued Bell.

"No," replied the witness.

"Could that of Edward Hines?"

Each prospective juror man also was asked his political affiliation. No juror had been definitely accepted by both sides when an adjournment was taken tonight.

He was taken to Wheaton on the same train on which he and Mrs. Rexroat rode when she went to her death on September 26th. He was recognized and identified by Walter J. Blazer, conductor.

"You treated me fine," Spencer said to Captain Halpin, "the last thing I do before I die will be to leave you my glasses."

Getting the Fire Under Control

KNOWN DEATH ROLL IS SIXTEEN

CARDIFF, Wales, Oct. 15.—A disaster, possibly the greatest in the history of the South Wales coal fields, whose annals are bristling with terrible catastrophes, occurred yesterday through an explosion in the Universal colliery near here. Shortly after the day shift of 931 men entered the mine an explosion shattered the works. During the day and the early part of the night about 500 miners were brought to the surface alive. After midnight the rescuing parties began to get the fire under control and at 2:30 this morning twenty more men were found alive at the bottom of the pit. This gave hope that others may be found but there is still a probability that nearly 400 men perished.

Including the bodies recovered and those killed at the pit head, the known death roll numbers sixteen. Doctors with oxygen and medicaments descended the shaft at an early hour this morning. A great crowd of distracted persons surrounded the pit head all night and another crowd waited for news at the Cardiff station.

DISPUTE OVER RIGHT OF WAY OF BUGGIES RESULTS IN MURDER

Quarrel Which Began Last Sunday
Culminates in Tragedy Last Night.

Springfield, Mo., Oct. 14.—A dispute over the right of way of two buggies church-bound on a narrow country road at Elsey, Mo., which was begun last Sunday, came to an end tonight with the following results:

Edward Draper is dead; his brother, Peter Draper, is dying; Jack Gamble is in jail at Galena, Mo., charged with the murder of Draper, and his brother, Joe Gamble, is in the same jail charged with felonious assault upon Peter Draper.

The men driving in the opposite direction met near church and each refused to turn so that the other might pass by. It is charged that then Joe hit Peter with a bat. Today Jack and Edward met on the same road and Jack is alleged to have hurled a heavy rock against Edward, hitting him in the breast, causing instant death.

CAUSE OF FIRE IS UNKNOWN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The United States government today informed Provisional President Victoriano Huerta that it looked with abhorrence and amazement upon his assumption of both executive and legislative powers in Mexico and that in view of his course, could not regard as constitutional the elections planned for October 26th.

Two notes, the one strongly phrased and written by Secretary Bryan, inquiring about the safety of the imprisoned members of the Mexican congress and another drawn in forceful language by President Wilson and said to constitute practically the last efforts of the Washington government to deal with the Huerta authorities by diplomatic means unless there is a decided change of spirit on the part of the officials in Mexico City.

Lose Hope of Fair Election.

The negotiations through John Lind had proceeded to the point where the state department accepted the endorsement of Frederico Gamboa for the presidency as meaning the elimination of Huerta and where it was confidently hoped that a fair and free election would be held on October 26th. Now, however, President Wilson has made it clear that the Washington government had with the events of the last few days the imprisonment of the deputies and the establishment of a dictatorship by Huerta—lost all hope of seeing a constitutional election held by the Huerta regime.

The steps taken by the United States were formally communicated to all foreign governments. No further negotiations are planned.

AFTER FIGHT WITH MILITANTS SYLVIA PANKHURST IS CAPTURED BY THE POLICE

The militants attempted to rescue her but the police, who were in large numbers, succeeded in placing her in a taxi-cab and driving to Holloway jail.

The meeting was abandoned in order to hold a protest demonstration outside the jail.

through diplomatic channels and it would not be surprising if John Lind who has been waiting at Vera Cruz to observe the manner in which the Huerta officials carried out their promises, should return to the United States at once.

Huerta's decrees proclaiming himself as in charge of the departments of interior, administration, finance and war, were received here today and the text given out at the state department. The documents were read at today's cabinet meeting and members of the cabinet expressed themselves as astonished at the audacity of General Huerta.

Calls Notes "Intemperate."

They were apprised by President Wilson of the nature of the two communications sent to General Huerta through Charge O'Shaughnessy, and all voiced approval of the vigorous representations. The cabinet meeting was about to adjourn when press despatches announced that Senator Querido Moheño, Mexican minister of foreign affairs, had characterized the American communications as "intemperate."

Charge O'Shaughnessy reported that he had conveyed both communications and had been assured with respect to the imprisoned deputies that no violence would be done them, but that they would be tried for sedition.

It is the second note of the American government which is said to be only 150 words in length practically breaking off negotiations with Huerta which is believed to have prompted foreign Minister Moheño, to call "intemperate."

Administration officials hold that with most of the members of the Mexican congress in jail a prominent member of congress who dared to speak adversely to the Huerta administration still mysteriously concealed and the congress dissolved, it is impossible for the civilized world to believe that the Huerta group was capable of establishing or maintaining constitutional authority in the southern republic. They also feel that the Huerta officials are no longer deserving of such diplomatic relations as have heretofore existed.

As yet there is no concrete evidence that the Washington administration intends to use drastic measures. The white house discouraged the heads of the army and navy from taking any steps that would give an alarmist impression.

May Support Constitutionalists.

Some officials said they would not be surprised if the failure of the Huerta government to comply with promises made to John Lind would cause the Washington administration

MAY DELAY VERDICT IN GOV. SULZER'S TRIAL

POSSIBILITY OF AN INDEFINITELY
LONG DELAY LOOMS UP AT TRIAL

Counsel For Impeachment Managers Ask That the Bringing of a New Impeachment Article of Impeachment in the Event That the Testimony of Peck and Morganthau Should Prove Irrelevant.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 14.—The possibility of an indefinitely long delay in reaching a verdict as to the guilt or innocence of Governor William Sulzer loomed up at his trial today. This was suggested when counsel for the impeachment managers asked that the court recommend to the assembly the bringing of a new article of impeachment in the event that the testimony of Duncan W. Peck, superintendent of public works and Henry L. Morganthau, ambassador to Turkey, should be found not to be relevant to any charge contained in the present articles.

Whether this testimony was relevant to Article IV, which charges the governor with suppressing evidence before the Frawley investigating committee was the subject of debate today in executive session and undecided when adjournment was taken until tomorrow morning. The executive session will be continued tomorrow and on the result of the court's deliberations will depend the question as to whether it will proceed to vote now or await the action of the assembly on the question of bringing the suggested new article of impeachment.

DOKAYS HAD GREAT CEREMONIAL SESSION

PARADE BEST SEEN IN JACKSONVILLE FOR MANY YEARS.

Peoria Sent Delegation of More Than Three Hundred—Prizes Went to Ernest Stout and C. R. Knollenberg—Large Class Was Given Work.

One of the most spectacular parades that has been seen in Jacksonville in years was that given Tuesday evening by Ilderim Temple No. 62, D. O. K. K., which was witnessed by hundreds of people who crowded the streets along the line of march. Taking their floats the Jacksonville Dokays went to the Chicago & Alton passenger station to meet the special train that brought a delegation of three hundred and twenty-five from Peoria, Pekin and other towns along the line. The Peoria votaries brought with them Elgin's band and a number of features and were given first position in the parade.

Immediately after the arrival of the special train the parade was formed at the corner of East North and Brown streets and moved west on East State street to the square, around the south side to West State street, west to Church street, counter-marched back to the square and around the north side to Ilderim Temple.

Some Parade Features.

Leading the parade was Uncle Sam, carrying a large American flag, the impersonation being by Edward Tendick. Next followed a platoon of city police, the Elgin band from Peoria and Capt. Dunn's Arabs of El Medi Temple. The first float was that carrying "Little (?) Egypt," a feature of the Peoria delegation, which consisted of a 400-pound member of El Medi temple dressed as a girl. Officers and votaries of El Medi temple followed. Another float carrying Peoria's Zulu chief was next and at different places in the line of El Medi votaries were several stunts put on by different visiting Dokays. Two men dressed as Jews provoked quite a little laughter, as did an inebriated dandy in evening clothes who in some unknown manner had appropriated a lamp post and who inquired of the onlookers the location of State street. Members of the El Medi quartet were dressed in yellow clown costumes and pinned across the four of them was a large sign declaring their identity. Bringing up the rear of the visitors was the Peoria delegation dressed in oriental costumes.

Jeffries band led the Jacksonville Dokays and it was followed by McCarty's Arabs, who were put through a number of different formations at various points along the line of march. The work of this squad was done with the precision and accuracy of a well oiled machine and did not hinder the advance of the pageant in the least. The white squadron, in charge of W. S. Badger, came next, and it was followed by the Tyros, who were chained together and guarded by an armed band of the faithful, so that the feast of the votaries should be complete.

Jacksonville Floats.

Next in order followed a camel, a large policeman, a polar bear and Jacksonville members marching. The first of the local "floats" was an open carriage in which a Dutch farmer and his wife were riding and at each side walked an announcer. This was followed by a pony drawn wagon on which were some clowns. Gaily decorated automobiles carrying votaries were next. One of the motor vehicles was decorated with the skull and cross bones and attached to the radiator cap was a miniature railroad crossing sign. This machine was driven by a skeleton and attached to the sides of the car were warnings to drivers. Other machines were decorated with streamers of crepe paper and in the Halloween colors. One carried a burlesque on the celebrated "September Morn." Next followed a float bearing Tolp, who was busily engaged in preparing the hot sands for the caravan. A carryall loaded with employees of Barr's laundry, a burlesque on the city light plant, Andre & Andre's wagon loaded with votaries and the Jacksonville Transit company's wagon fitted up as a cage containing three wild animals, brought up the rear of the pageant.

Clowns Caused Merriment. Several funny clowns marched along at different places in the parade and amused the people by their comic antics. Music was furnished by the two bands and the whole procession was lighted up with red fire. Roman candles were fired and the parade was all that the local members had promised. The committee in charge of the parade and the members of the order are to be congratulated on the successful manner in which they brought the pageant to a close.

MRS. WILSON HEARD IN SUPERB SONG RECITAL

First of Concerts of Conservatory Given By New Head of Vocal Department at Northminster Church.

The first of the concerts given by Illinois College Conservatory took place last evening in Northminster church. Mrs. Genevieve Clark Wilson, the new voice teacher at the Conservatory, gave a song recital assisted by Messrs. Kritch and Munger, of the faculty. It was a beautiful recital, and much enjoyed by an audience that overflowed the church.

The program was introduced by a Suite for violin and piano, played by Mr. Kritch and Mr. Munger. Cyril Scott the composer of this striking suite, is a young Englishman with decidedly modern tendencies, inclination towards changing rhythms, abrupt modulations and unexpected harmonies. The character of the music, dreamy and wild by turns, fits well the name Tallahassee, and the negro air and dance which forms the last movement, is most characteristic of the far-southern negroes. Each of the three movements was interpreted in finished style by the players. Mr. Kritch's clean intonation and artistic phrasing being particularly evident.

Mrs. Wilson began her program with Schubert's beautiful "Evening Glow", a serene and sustained composition, requiring perfect breath control, and clear enunciation, which Mrs. Wilson gave to perfect satisfaction. All through the evening, indeed, the remarkably clear enunciation of the singer was noticeable, an acquirement all too rare in public performers. It was difficult to tell in the German songs, whether the melancholy "Give me Thy Hand" the tragic "At the Dance" or the exulting "My Little Sweetheart" were better suited to Mrs. Wilson's style of voice and interpretative ability but one is obliged to conclude that each was done best. The range of emotion capable of expression by such a sympathetic voice, backed by such an intelligence, is almost infinite. In the French group still another style was heard, both of composition and emotional content. The lovely "Regrets" was given with exquisite taste, and the superb Hymn to the Sun brought forth a thunder of applause well deserved. For his power and passion were magnificently brought out, the climax at the end being a genuine height of achievement. As an encore to this group, the ever lovely "In the Time of Roses" was given as only Mrs. Wilson can give it.

It was in the two English series of songs that the strongest appeal was made to the audience. Most of them were of a simple, intimate nature, and were sung simply and sympathetically, going straight to the heart of the listener. Fortunate indeed is the composer of children's songs who hears his works interpreted by such an artist as Mrs. Wilson, for she makes much of what seems at first sight very little. The southern negro song was also done with genuine enthusiasm and understanding. The final group ended with Henschel's splendid "Spring" with its joyous exultation and coquettish rhythm, applause was long continued after it, and the audience seemed loath to leave.

A word must be spoken of Mr. Munger's beautiful accompaniments, which sustained the singer at every point, adding lovely piano tone to the exquisite quality of tones of Mrs. Wilson's voice.

YOUR OWN VOICE.

How You May Hear It as It Sounds to Other Persons' Ears.

Laloy, who appears to have scientifically investigated the matter, assures us that not only does one not see himself as others see him, but that he does not hear himself as others hear him. Some interesting experiments were made by the French savant in this connection.

In order to ascertain whether a man really knew the sound of his own voice, Laloy has been at some pains to determine the facts. His experiments show that if a person record on a phonograph disk a few sentences pronounced by himself, together with others recorded by friends, and causes the machine to reproduce these, it most frequently happens that the man more easily recognizes the voices of his friends than he does his own.

It appears that the differences lies in the quality of the tone. One hears his own voice not only through the air, as do his auditors, but across the solid parts between the organs of speech and those of hearing. The sound thus produced has a different timbre from that conducted to the ear by the air above.

If one entertain any doubt as to this let him try the following experiments: Take the end of a wooden rod between the teeth and pronounce the vowel continuously. Let the other end be taken alternately between the teeth and released by another person who at the same time stops his ears. The latter will find that every time he seizes the rod in his teeth the sound will be stronger than when it reaches the ear through the air above and that it has a different quality. The passage of sound through a solid body augments its intensity and modifies its quality.—Harper's Weekly.

Still He Had It.

A certain physician told some of his patients that as long as they kept their feet and legs dry they would be safe from an attack of the grip. One day he was surprised to receive a letter from a patient in which the latter said that he had two wooden legs and yet he had had the grip for five consecutive years.—Philadelphia Ledger.

THE BREADFRUIT TREE.

Its Meat When Cooked Tastes Like Mashed Potatoes and Milk.

One of the gifts of the eastern tropics to the western is the breadfruit, which is now extensively planted in the West Indies. This can be done only by cuttings, as the cultivated variety develops no seeds. In the wild form the chestnutlike seeds are eaten, but the pulp is disregarded. The tree is of moderate height, but spreads a broad crown of large, ragged edged, glossy leaves, making an excellent shade.

The fruit, which is a compound of the massive clusters of blossoms, is about the size of a coconut and is incased in a rough rind. This, when baked in hot embers or in an oven, broken open and scooped out with a spoon, tastes like mashed potatoes and milk or like sweet bread, which it also resembles in appearance. It is a little fibrous toward the center, but elsewhere is quite smooth and "pudding." Sometimes a curry or stew is made of it, and it goes well as a vegetable with meat or gravy. "With sugar, milk, butter or treacle," Wallace wrote, "it is a delicious pudding, having a very slight but delicate and characteristic flavor, which, like that of good bread and potatoes, one never gets tired of." It is also highly nutritious.

The genus (artocarpus) contains several species, one of which, the jackfruit, is also cultivated for eating. The timber of the tree is also useful, the bark can be prepared for a sort of cloth and the sap forms, when boiled with oil, a mucilaginous liquid very useful for making the seams of wooden palls, canoes and the like water tight.—Harper's Weekly.

one of them. The number six boat was lowered and got away safely filled with stowage passengers in charge of Fourth Officer Langsell. The No. 7 boat on being lowered was caught under the stern of the ship, the boat being completely wrecked.

Passengers Become Calmer.
"Meanwhile the chief engineer, two seamen and myself fought the fire and apparently subdued the flames. I gave orders to send no more boats away as I had received word from the Carmania that she was hoping to be with us by 11 a. m. Life belts were served out and put on each passenger. The passengers now became calmer. Food was served out to them.

"At 9 a. m. this bunker was found to be ablaze. It being impossible to stop the fire in the bunker on account of gases, the water-tight doors were closed and water poured down the No. 2 hatch on to the fire, but the fire was gaining all the time.

"At 11 a. m. the Carmania arrived and lowered a boat but could not reach the ship on account of high seas. Asked Carmania to look for the No. 2 boat. The steamship Seydlitz arrived and lowered boats which could not reach us. About 3 p. m. the Carmania returned and tried to reach the ship with life rafts but all drifted past our bow, too far away.

"Several steamers had arrived by dusk. The Kroonland put away boats which made four attempts to come alongside but were swept away each time.

"At 9:30 p. m. the saloon and chart house were flaming. The deck and bridge and before the funnel were blazing fiercely.

"Pumps and dynamo stopped for want of steam. Marconi operators worked with the accumulator until 11 p. m., when the magazine on the bridge blew up, carrying the aerial away.

"Several boats by this time were laying off the ship and induced passengers to jump and they were rescued by boats. At 12 midnight, the weather was overcast and squally. Operations were suspended, it being too dark for boats to see. The fire meanwhile worked through the women's steerage to the after end of the ship but we kept knowledge of this from the passengers who were quiet throughout the rest of the night.

Spend Night Building Rafts.

"The chief engineer, the Marconi men and seamen and myself spent the night making small rafts in case the fire burned through the deck before day light. At 5:15 a. m. the first boat arrived. Weather and sea having moderated, boats were enabled to come alongside ship which enabled passengers to embark quickly. All the steamers laying around the ship sent boats, now we were enabled to load three boats with passengers at once. The passengers left in a very orderly way and there was no panic, women breaking down and crying when help was alongside and all were off the ship by 8 o'clock a. m., about 400 passengers. I searched the ship myself and found no one else on board so decided to abandon her as the No. 3 hatch was well alight by now, so with remainder of crew embarked on the Kroonland.

"Nothing at all has been heard of the two missing boats. Passing vessels were asked to keep a lookout for them."

Captain Inch expressed his heartfelt thanks and gratitude to the captains of ships who stood by and to officers and crews who came to his assistance and to others who aided his passengers and crew.

Thinks Cigarette Started Fire.

Jans Magnus, a member of the Volturmo's crew, avers there were frequent violations of the steamship company's strict orders restricting persons in the steerage to smoke.

"The company fines anyone smoking, five dollars as is usual on immigrant ships," Magnus said, "yet the rule was broken. I have found cigarette stubs and half burned matches often pushed into cracks or under objects."

"I feel sure that some steerage passenger when an inspector was seen, threw a cigarette down a hatchway. The fire broke out in a part of the hold where a lot of rugs and other stuff that would burn easy were piled."

Magnus says there was no explosion on the Volturmo except when one of the bulk heads blew out under the pressure of heat. He worked at a hose from 7 in the morning until 8 at night.

MAY ASK FOR CHANGE OF VENUE.

Cairo, Ill., Oct. 14.—The case of Dr. E. E. Gordon, will be called in court here tomorrow. It is thought Field's attorneys will ask for a change of venue. The defendant's plea when the trial is begun will be that the physician had wronged Mrs. Fields, one of his patients.

DIES OF TYPHOID FEVER.

Ashaway, R. I., Oct. 14.—State Senator Charles W. Clarke, one of the Rhode Island delegation at the recent Perry celebration at Put-in-Bay, Ohio, died of typhoid fever today. His death is the second in the delegation from the same cause.

JURORS ARE CHOSEN.

Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 14.—The twelve jurors before whom Mrs. Jennie May Eaton will be tried on the charge of murdering her husband, Rear-Admiral Joseph Giles Eaton, at Assinippi last March, by giving him poison, were today chosen in the superior court.

ABOLISH DUTCH STANDARD.

to consider throwing its support to the constitutionalists in the north of Mexico. This might carry with it a lifting of the embargo on arms and many senators think the constitutionalists would soon triumph if they had such assistance.

President Wilson and Secretary Bryan hitherto have opposed such a step, but informal communication within the last two weeks with the constitutionalists had indicated that the Washington administration is scrutinizing the leaders of the constitutionalist movement to determine what are their purposes and whether they could establish constitutional authority in Mexico.

New Policy Likely.

Developments in the situation are expected to follow quickly now as the rejection in advance of the election planned for Oct. 26th, is likely to draw out a new expression of policy by the United States.

It is confidently expected here that foreign governments generally will follow the lead of the United States in what ever steps taken.

Some of them explained to this country that their recognition of Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson's congratulatory speech to Huerta as forecasting recognition by the United States.

Today incidentally, Henry Lane Wilson's resignation as ambassador to Mexico went into effect.

STATE FAIR POLICEMAN IS HELD TO GRAND JURY FOR MURDER

Witnesses at Coroner's Inquest Testify That the Shooting of McClellan Was Unnecessary.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 14.—Tot Cannon, East St. Louis policeman, was today held to the grand jury for the killing of Francis McClellan, Sheboygan, Wis., aged 22, at the state fair last week, where Officer Cannon was on special duty.

The officer claimed the youth resisted arrest and he was compelled to shoot.

Witnesses at the coroner's inquest today testified the shooting was unnecessary.

Mayor Chamberlain of East St. Louis testified that Officer Cannon was a man of excellent reputation and an officer of good judgment.

APPELLATE COURT REVERSES AND REMANDS TEN YEAR OLD SUIT

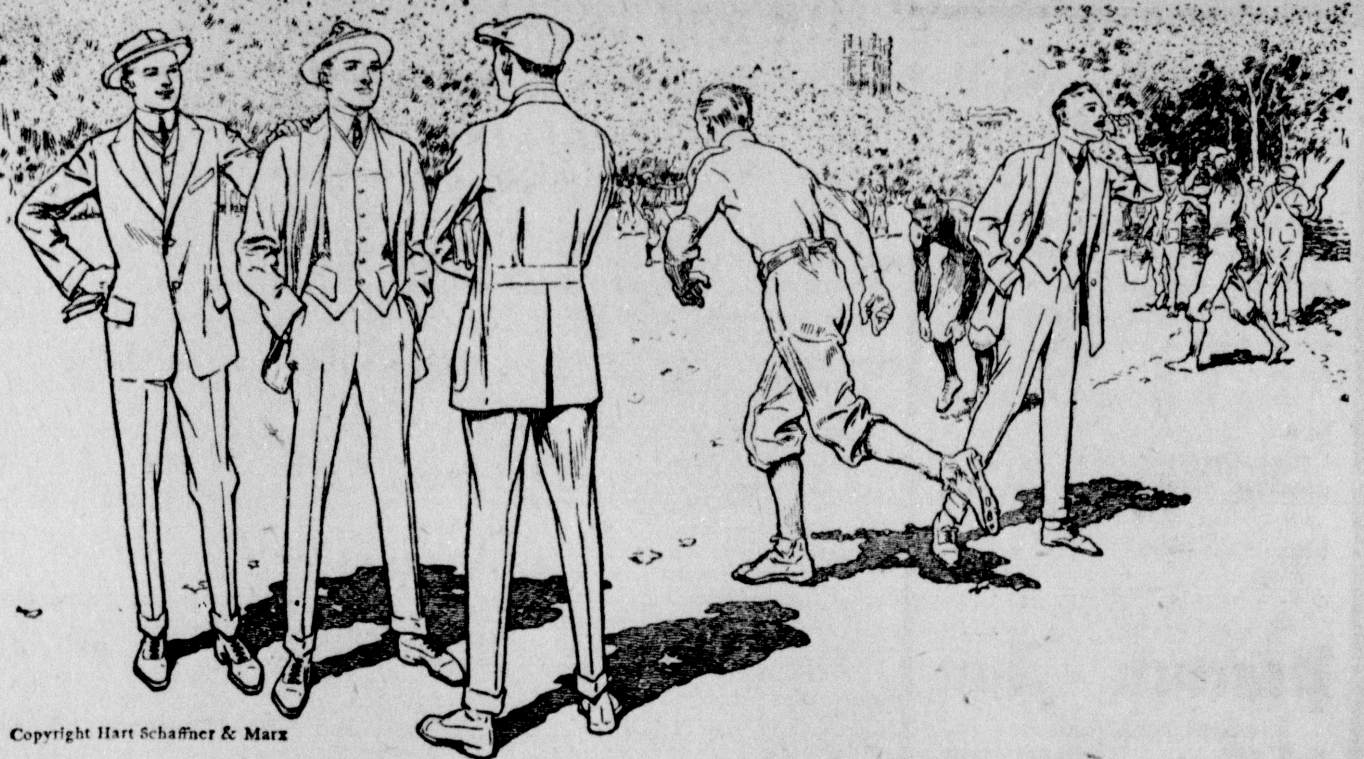

Amount Involved involved in the Suit Originally $70,000 Has Increased to Nearly $150,000.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—A decision handed down by the appellate court today reverses and remands to the circuit court a suit that has been pending since June 17, 1893. The amount involved in the suit originally was $70,000, but the interest on this money, which has been accruing for 20 years, has doubled the amount at issue until it is now nearly $150,000. Alonzo J. Cutler sued Charles W. Partridge, both members of the Chicago Board of Trade, for $70,000 alleged to have been due the plaintiff in a business transaction. Alleged errors in the record are the reasons for the reversals.

ALL IN READINESS FOR ROYAL WEDDING.

Dinner Given at London Attended by Many Notables.

London, Oct. 14.—Everything, down to the most minute detail, is ready for the wedding tomorrow of Prince Arthur of Connaught and the Duchess of Fife. As a preliminary to tomorrow's event a royal family dinner was given today, at which all the members of royalty who are to attend the wedding and the members of the royal family were present. The dinner was followed by a reception at Clarence house, to which the friends of the bridal couple were invited.

The Royal chapel, which will be the scene of tomorrow's wedding, is fully prepared for the great event. As it would have been impossible to accommodate the three hundred persons invited to the wedding in the chapel without changing the interior arrangements, the pews were removed and in their place stands of three tiers each were built in each side of the nave, amply spacious to accommodate the guests. A semi-circle of gilt chairs has been placed near the altar rail for the royal guests. One, higher than the others, is reserved for Queen Mary. The keynote of the interior decorations of the chapel is simplicity. There will be no lavish display of flowers or shrubs. Out of respect for the bride heather will be used in the floral decorations exclusively. The carpet to be used is the same which was used at the wedding of King George and Queen Mary. The gold plate of the altar service dates back to Charles the Second. The books to be used are those used at the king's wedding.

Among the members of royalty who will be present at the wedding tomorrow will be King George, who will give the bride away, Queen Mary, Queen Alexandra, Dowager Empress Marie of Russia, the king and queen of Norway, Queen Dowager Amedee of Portugal, Prince and Princess Frederick Leopold of Prussia, the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, who will be the attendants of the groom; Princess Maud, the bride's sister, Princess Mary and her cousin, Princess Mary of Teck, Princess Patricia, Prince Olaf, the crown prince of Norway, and Prince John, the youngest son of King George and Queen Mary.

The royal bride will wear a magnificent dress of white satin and lace and her mother's wedding veil. Upon her head she will wear a tiara of natural orange blossoms from the royal hot houses of Sandringham. The five bridesmaids will be dressed in blue, with blue satin shoes and stockings and flower wreaths in place of hats. Prince Olaf and Prince John, who will be pages to the bride, will wear coats and knee pants of blue satin. The bridegroom will wear the full dress uniform of his regiment, the Scots Greys, the band of which will play in the courtyard of the chapel before and after the ceremony. The full choir of the Chapel Royal will sing the hymns.

After the wedding ceremony the guests will assemble at St. James palace, where the wedding breakfast will be served. Only the immediate members of the royal family and some of their more distant relations will be present. As to the plans of the young couple but little has been permitted to become known. They will go to Liverpool to say farewell to the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, who are going to Canada, but their further movements are a matter of mere speculation.

MACON, GA., CHILD

Made Strong and Well by Vinol.

When we tell you that Vinol is the best remedy in our whole stock for making weak, puny, ailing children strong, robust and rosy we are only telling you what has been proved by hundreds of mothers.

J. L. Picking, Macon, Ga., says: "My child was very thin and delicate, no appetite, nervous, and did not sleep well. Doctors did not help her. Vinol was recommended and the change after a fair trial was wonderful. She sleeps soundly all night, has a splendid appetite and has gained in weight. I wish every mother knew what Vinol will do for delicate children."

What Vinol did for this little girl it will do for every weak and ailing child, because sickly children need the strengthening cod liver elements and the tonic iron that Vinol contains—that is why Vinol builds them up quickly and gives them a fine, healthy color. It is pleasant to take and we guarantee that the results will satisfy you—money back if they do not—Lee P. Alcott, druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

ADOPTED BY THE JACKSONVILLE BUSINESS MEN'S PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION, OCT. 10, 1913.

READ EVERY WORD

After a careful investigation of the effect of no license for six years in this city, resulting not only in the loss of hundreds of thousands of dollars, in population and in school enrollment, but also in a condition far worse for the boys and girls and all of the people of the city; the Business Men's Protective Association, realizing the financial and moral condition of the city, has planned a program for the improvement of streets, lights, etc., and at its regular meeting adopted the following ordinance, which they will ask the city council to adopt:

AN ORDINANCE TO REGULATE AND RESTRICT THE OPERATION OF SALOONS IN THE CITY OF JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS.

Be It Ordained by the City of Jacksonville, Illinois.

Section 1. Any person who shall sell any intoxicating liquors in any quantity in any room, building, yard, premises or place of public resort within the corporate limits of the City of Jacksonville, Illinois, without first having obtained a license as hereinafter provided, shall upon conviction, forfeit such goods as may be found in their possession and fined not less than $100; or imprisoned in the county jail not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days for each offense.

Section 2. Before said license shall be issued to any person or firm, the same shall make application therefor to the City Council in writing, describing the place or premises where said business is to be conducted.

Section 3. No license granted under the provisions of this ordinance shall give the person or firm to whom such license is issued the privilege of doing business in any other place than the one described in the license.

Section 4. All saloons licensed under this ordinance shall be situated on the street floor and no screens or any other device shall be used to prevent a plain view of the premises from the street at all times, day and night.

Section 5. No wine rooms shall be licensed under this ordinance or permitted in connection with saloons.

Section 6. No person or firm licensed under this ordinance shall sell or give away or allow to be sold or given by his knowledge or consent any intoxicating liquor or other beverage to any minor. Neither shall the person licensed employ any minor as a servant or clerk in any capacity in his place of business.

Section 7. No proprietor or employee of a saloon, shall sell or give away or allow to be sold or given away on his premises any intoxicating drink to any person evidently under the influence of liquor.

Section 8. The license fee shall be $1,000, payable annually in advance.

Section 9. All saloons shall be operated under the following hours: Opening at 5 a. m. and closing at 11 p. m. Remaining closed from 11 p. m. Saturday until 5 a. m. the following Monday.

Section 10. No proprietor or employee shall be allowed in their respective places of business during the time they are closed, except in case of fire or destruction by the elements necessary care of property; or by the written consent of the Mayor or in his absence the Chief of police, and said written consent shall specify the time granted said proprietor or his employee and purpose of same.

Section 11. For the violation of any of the sections of this ordinance relative to the operations of saloons upon conviction therefor, said person or firm licensed hereunder shall pay for the first conviction $100. For the second conviction they shall forfeit their license to the city together with the amount of license paid and the said license shall not be transferable. And the city council sitting as a License Board shall have the power to revoke any license issued by them, for the violation of the conditions under which said license was issued.

Section 12. A copy of this ordinance shall be printed in readable type and hung in a conspicuous place in the room licensed; and a copy of the ordinance shall be printed on the back of each license issued and made a part of the contract between the city and the licensee.

Section 13. Any minor who misrepresents his age to secure intoxicating liquor shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction for same shall be fined for the first conviction $100; for the second conviction $100 and be imprisoned in the city jail not less than 30 and not more than 90 days for each offense.

Section 14. License granted under this ordinance may be transferred when approved by the City Commissioners. But no license shall be issued for less than one year.

AVOID CATARRH

Breathe Hyomei—It Medicates the Air You Breathe and Instantly Relieves.

Why continue to suffer from catarrh, stopped up head, husky voice, and other troubles of the breathing organs, when there is an absolutely certain, scientific remedy at hand?

Hyomei is the remedy. It is a pleasant, harmless and antiseptic medication which you breathe through a small inhaler. Breathing a few times daily through the inhaler charges the air with this germ-killing antiseptic. Catarrhal discharges, sniffles, foul breath, watery eyes and the formation of crusts in the nose are promptly relieved by this medicated air.

It is guaranteed to do it, or money back.

A complete Hyomei outfit, consisting of a strong, hard rubber pocket inhaler and a bottle of Hyomei costs only $1.00, and extra bottles, if afterwards needed, are only 50 cents each. Druggists everywhere sell Hyomei.

Use Hyomei for bronchitis, coughs and cold in the head, husky voice, croup of infants, and any inflammatory disease of the breathing organs.—Adv.

SCHOOL FOR DEAF

TEACHERS ELECT.

The first meeting of the Teachers' association of the State School for the Deaf was held in the library of the school at 3:30 Tuesday afternoon. Officers for the year were chosen as follows: Miss M. Russell, president; Miss Mary Martin, vice president; Miss Amanda Davis, secretary. Following the election a social hour in honor of the new members of the faculty was enjoyed, during which the girls of the Domestic Science department, under the direction of Miss Race, served appetizing refreshments. The new teachers are Misses Davis, Carter, Jones, Cloud, Ross, Edith and Ruth Wycokoff. As at present organized the faculty is as strong as that of any similar school in America and under its new board of efficient officers will no doubt hold many profitable sessions during the year. The retiring officers, Miss Noyes, Mr. Putnam and Mrs. Kruger, have every reason to feel well satisfied with their efforts of the past year. This school is wide awake and progressive and ably officered in every department.

F. H. LUCE NOW HOLDS IMPORTANT BANK POST.

Becomes Cashier of Fidelity Trust Company of Tacoma, Wash.

F. H. Luce, well known in this city and whose wife was formerly Miss Nellie Mathers, has resigned his position as national bank examiner and chairman of the examiners of the Pacific coast states and has moved from Seattle to Tacoma to become vice president and cashier of the Fidelity Trust company of that place. Speaking of him the Pacific Banker of Portland, Ore., says:

"None of the splendid men who have been national bank examiner in this section has won for himself a higher position in the regard of the bankers and others with whom he has come in contact, than modest Frank Luce. Faithful in the last degree to the trust imposed on him by the exacting demands of his position, he has tempered his discharge of duties, in some cases unpleasant, with a saving salt of common sense and tactfulness that has won and held friends for him throughout the Pacific northwest and has held him high in the regard of those officially his superior officers. As banker, legislator, lieutenant governor and national bank examiner and later as chairman examiner of the district comprising at one time the entire Pacific slope states, he has pursued the even tenor of his way making a success of each."

FALLING HAIR MEANS

DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save Your Hair! Get a 25 Cent Bottle of Danderine Right Now—Also Stops Itching Scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store, or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.—Adv.

Dwight Kastrop, first trick operator in the Burlington office, has bought a new No. 10 Remington typewriter, of which he is quite pardonably proud.

At the Car Shops.

The men are poking a bit of fun at C. S. Branch, superintendent of mechanical department of the C. P. & St. L. He came here Monday to look things over, forgetting entirely that it was a holiday, and found only two or three men left for watch. About 5 p. m. Mr. Ingrand appeared and the two talked things over.

George Hartline, boiler-maker, has resigned to take a position with Swift & Co.

Charles Taylor, helper in the boiler shops, has resigned.

Denver Buck, helper in the boiler shop, has quit and expects to go to Oklahoma to reside.

L. Magill, foreman of the car department, went with his wife to Springfield to enjoy the holiday. Thomas Heaton, M. D. Topping and Charles Cobb spent their holiday at Fish Creek, near Wolf lake, fishing and brought back big strings. They had more than a hundred in all and hold up their left elbows and insist they caught every one with a hook and not a piece of money.

Charles Bacon, employed in the mill department, went fishing by himself and caught a good string.

Number 27 is getting a coat of paint and rapidly approaching a condition in which she will be out of the shop and in front of a train.

C. R. Strickler of Peoria, traveling agent for the Lackawana fast freight line, called on local railroad men yesterday.

In August, L. E. Curtis, for a long time connected with the Chicago & Alton freight office in the city, went to Joplin, Mo., with his wife and ten-months-old baby. The day after their arrival Mrs. Curtis was attacked with a severe case of typhoid pneumonia and was a long time in a hospital and is now just able to be about and be removed to the home of her sister in Joplin.

Edward Keating, Secretary.

Mother's Friend in Every Home

Comfort and Safety Assured Before the Arrival of the Stork.

The old saying—what is home without a mother—should add "Mother's Friend." In thousands of American homes there is a bottle of this splendid and famous remedy that has aided many a woman through the trying ordeal, saved her from suffering and pain, kept her in health of mind and body in advance of baby's coming and had a most wonderful influence in developing a healthy, lively disposition in the child.

There is no other remedy so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding and soothes the inflammation of breast glands.

Mother's Friend is an external remedy, acts quickly and not only banishes all distress in advance, but assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother. Thus she becomes a healthy woman with all her strength preserved so thoroughly enjoying the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend can be had at any drug store at $1.00 a bottle, and is really one of the greatest blessings ever discovered for expectant mothers. Write to Bradfield Regulator Co., 128 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their free book. Write to-day. It is most instructive.

There is a wealth of instruction and comfort to be derived in reading this little book. It is plainly written, just what every woman wants to know, and will be a splendid little textbook for guidance, not only for yourself, but will make you helpful to others. And in the meantime, do not fail to get a bottle of Mother's Friend at the drug store, and thus fortify yourself against any and all pain and discomfort.

SEVERE ITCHING AND BURNING

Eczema Began With Pimples on Lower Limbs. Constantly Tortured. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Cured in Ten Days.

203 Walnut St., Hillsboro, Ill.—"My child had a breaking out on the lower limbs which developed into eczema. The eczema began with pimples which contained yellow corruption and from the child's clothing they were greatly irritated. They seemed to burn, which made the child scratch them, resulting in a mass of open places. They made her so cross and fretful that it was impossible to keep her quiet. They caused her to lose much sleep and she was constantly tormented by severe itching and burning."

"I tried several well-known remedies, but got no relief until I got a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, which did so much good that I got a large quantity that cured her in ten days after she had been affected for two months." (Signed) Mrs. Edith Schwartz, Feb. 28, 1913.

TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Prevent dry, thin and falling hair, allay itching and irritation, and promote the growth and beauty of the hair, frequent shampoos with Cuticura Soap, assisted by occasional dressings with Cuticura Ointment, are usually effective when other methods fail. Sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

TEARNEY AGAIN HEADS THREE EYE LEAGUE

IS RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT AT ANNUAL MEETING IN CHICAGO

No Changes Made in the Make-up of the League—Rock Island Seeks
Admission But Lacks Required
Strength—League Will Open Early on 1914 Campaign and Will Close Sept. 1st.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—"Al" Tearney of Chicago conquered the opposition today and was re-elected president of the Three Eye League at its annual meeting. The opposition failed in the test of one ballot—only two of the clubs, Bloomington and Dayton, not voting for him, their votes going to Ed Holland of the former organization.

A second ballot made the choice unanimous and with the election of J. T. Hayes of Davenport as vice-president of the league, harmony reigned complete.

No changes were made in the make-up of the league. Rock Island, a former member, sought admittance, but it was declared its representatives did not show the strength required, lack of which was owing, it is said, to a feeling of unfriendliness on the part of some well known Rock Island men toward the faction in power in the league. The ill-feeling dates from the separation of the Arsenal City from the circuit.

The Rock Island people expected to get the Springfield franchise and it was even said that the Danville rights were offered, though this was unconfirmed.

The Three Eye League may lead a crusade of Class B. organizations to obtain a five day extension of the draft period. The extension of the question took place informally at the meeting and later it was said, a resolution suggesting such a change to the National association of the minor leagues might be passed.

A rule was adopted requiring the home club to guarantee the visiting club $50, for each game scheduled on the former's grounds. Thus the visitors will get $50 even on rainy days while the home club, on the other hand, will be liable for its guaranty for only one game on double-header days.

A schedule of 140 games will be adopted at or before a meeting to be held here February 5th. Each club was asked to provide a schedule and the one best suited to the league's needs generally will be adopted. An early start than usual will be made on the 1914 campaign. It was agreed and the final games will be played Sept. 1st.

MANAGER CALLAHAN REMITS "PING" BODIE'S $600 FINE

White Sox Pilot Is Pleased With the Player's All-around Work and Is Convinced That He Is Likely Guilty of No Other Infractions.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—"Ping" Bodie, the Chicago American's famous slugger, was out of the happiest members of the team tonight when he received in the final pay envelope the $600 he thought he had lost when he was discovered by Manager Callahan drinking a stein of beer in St. Louis last summer. Bodie's contract included a stipulation that he must refrain from drinking during the season or forfeit $600 of his annual salary and his consuming the beer was a technical violation of the terms.

Pleased with the player's all-around work and convinced that he had been guilty of no other infractions, Manager Callahan remitted the fine. Bodie was so gratified he pledged himself tonight never to drink again during the playing season.

WHITE SOX PITCHER WEDS INDIANAPOLIS GIRL

"Red" Russell Marries Miss Charlotte Benz, a Cousin of Joe Benz,
Also of the White Sox.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Many congratulations were received this afternoon and tonight by Albert "Red" Russell, a star pitcher of the Chicago American League baseball team, on his marriage today to Miss Charlotte Benz of Indianapolis. The bride is a cousin of Joe Benz, another of the Chicago club's pitchers. The couple will go to Bonham, Texas, Mr. Russell's home, accompanying Comiskey's players that far on the New York Giants-White Sox world tour.

BUSINESS FOR SALE

My whole time being taken up with other duties, I have decided to offer my cigar factory and business for sale. If interested, call at circuit clerk's office.

Eugene D. Pyatt.

George Lamb of Beardstown called on city friends yesterday and proceeded to Naples.

SOME OFF-SIDE CHUTES.

The "Champion White Sox of 1913" have profited by the slap Comiskey administered to the "Champion White Sox of 1912." Last year when his team annexed the end of the city series money the Old Roman suggested that his players allow Tannehill (who had been released to Kansas City) a pro rata share of the spoils. This they almost unanimously refused to do. Comy said some very tart things to the team about their "pishness" and sent Tannehill his personal check for a sum equal to the players' divide—$809.12. Tuesday, when the money was split, each member of the team "doctored" his $140.79, to be distributed as follows: club full share each to Frank Lange, Chick Mattick and Morris Rath, all of whom were recently sold to Kansas City; one full share to be divided equally between the colored trainer, Billy Buckner, and "Billy," the boy who takes care of the uniforms and keeps the club house in shape, and one share to Joe O'Neill, who acts as road secretary. Beside these shares they also have "dug deep" into their jeans and doctored a healthy sum toward a wedding present for Tex Russell and his bride. All of which goes to prove that Brother Johnsing was right when he declared "the sun do move." Last year a Manhattan bank burglar's jimmy could not pry them loose from the kale, while this year they are attempting to outshine Charles Albert Comiskey in his great role of the most liberal giver in the country.

They are on again in another campaign for the easy money. The Giants-White Sox world-wide barnstorming trip starts in Cincinnati, on Saturday. The national commission has appropriated $1,000 to advertise the tour, with the idea of eventually hastening the day when baseball will become an international pastime.

Branch Rickey has been put on a long probation by Owner Hedges of the St. Louis Browns. He has been given a contract for ten years, at the end of which time, if he fails to land a winning combination, he will be free to hunt for another job.

The Cadillac bear outfought the Hegewesh wildcat at Milwaukee on Monday night, and if the result will only hasten the retirement of Batting Nelson the public will at least have something to be thankful for upon the last Thursday in November. The durable Dane, since his memorable fight with Joe Gaus, has been a leech in the public eye in all sorts of angles, from "evangelizing" with Billy Sunday up, and in all of which he has been a failure, except when gathering the easy dough is figured. The only place left open for him now is a seat in the Chicago city council or as a member of the Cook county board of commissioners, in either of which he would have ample opportunity to display his "art" as a follower of fistina.

Ping Bodie has changed his "mind." He is not going to fill that vaudeville engagement. He probably has forgotten thespiel Ed Walsh, Doc White and Harry Lord had framed for him; also he recently had his hair cut "to keep the sun out of his eyes," and he would not look well behind the footlights sans the frowzy adornment. He is endeavoring to convince Callahan that it was a great mistake to confiscate his $600 for that little stein of haubrau. Later—He has convinced Callahan.

The St. Louis city series has been called off with the teams on even terms, with three wins each. Pratt of the Browns and Beck of the Cardinals mix it in London prize ring style, the umpires duck out of the grounds, and then the fans fall into a genuine Kerry Patch jamboeree; heads are smashed, eyes blackened, noses broken and a general good old St. Louis time had all around. The Mound City always has been such a nice quiet place in which to attend a sporting function of any kind. Those who attended the game on Monday must have been brought back to the "good old days" when racing was in full steam at the fair grounds, and when pool alley off Pine street, between Seventh and Eighth, was calling. "They're off at Guttenburg!"

Christy Mathewson has announced that after his present contract expires he will not "write" any more baseball articles for the yellow syndicates.

Mugsy McGraw was a good loser, and has been loud in his praise of Connie Mack and his men. On the other hand, Cub Evers of the Cubs is boiling over in his rage against his "friends," the umpires, and says the Sox were "playing over their heads" and were favored with all of the luck. It is thus every season after these Chicago city championship affairs. "Luck" seems to stick to Comiskey, according to the West Side view in the matter. He has trimmed the Cubs three out of the four years since the series were inaugurated, and it has taken some baseball to turn that trick.

Depends.
"Do you think, talking of expression, that 'mid' is better than 'among'?"
"Yes, especially if it is at Annapolis, where a mid is among hasses."—Baltimore American

SECRETARY BRUCE DISTRIBUTES CHECKS TO OFFICIALS AND PLAYERS

Philadelphia American League Club
Receives Check For $69,333.79—
Each Player Receives $3,243.94.

Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—Twenty-six checks were distributed here today by John E. Bruce, secretary of the National Baseball commission to the officials and players of the Philadelphia American League club as their share of the world's series money. The club received a check of $69,333.79, of which $10,000 had been put up as a forfeit to comply with the rules of the series. This was the net amount after 25 per cent had been deducted from the club's total which will be turned over to President Johnson of the American League for distribution to the other seven American League clubs. Each of the twenty-five players is eligible to play in the series received $3,243.94.

ROSTER NOT COMPLETE.
Chicago, Oct. 14.—The roster of the American League ball players who will travel on the "round-the-world tour" with the New York Giants and other National Leaguers, was not completed today, as Secretary Grabner of the White Sox expected it would be. It is likely a dozen members of the Sox will go however, and a number of others are expected.

His Definition.
A boy who was asked to describe a kitten said, "A kitten is remarkable for rushing like mad at nothing whatever and stopping before it gets there."

A Restful Fall.
"I had a fall last night which rendered me unconscious for six hours."
"Really? Where did you fall?"
"I fell asleep."

Hard Luck.
Mrs. Dash-Mother says that she wants to be cremated. Dash—Just my luck! I haven't a match with me—Smart Set.

PLAY OF THE BLUEJAY.

It Likes to Tease Hawks and Owls by Imitating Their Calls.

The bluejay likes best to live in thick woods, but it often comes into open fields, orchards and near dwellings in search of food. When it discovers you it assumes a proud and angry air of conceit and defiance.

The bluejay's upper parts are purplish blue. The lower parts are purplish gray. The wings and tail are bright blue with black bars. The tail feathers are tipped with white. It has a crested head.

The bluejay builds its nest about twenty feet above ground. It is made of twigs and tree roots. From four to six eggs are laid. They are of a greenish drab color flecked with brown.

Doubtless the bluejay helped to name itself, as its common utterance is a long drawn "jay, jay, jay." This cry, with the bright blue colors, has given it its name.

While the jay sings no song it is able to imitate the calls of other birds, by which means it often attracts them. It likes to tease and torment the owl and especially the little sparrow hawk. This is done by imitating the cry of a wounded bird, which draws the hawk near. Then several jays will dart at the hawk, squawking and flocking about in great glee. Sometimes the play ends in a tragedy, for the hawk pounces upon one of them to the dismay of the others. Jays may be caged and tamed like crows, and some writers say they can be taught to utter words.—From Bird Studies by Herman C. de Groot.

The Inartistic Frock Coat.

Let the Chinese wallow in all our virtues and in all our vices, but at least let them preserve Asia from our clothes. Can you imagine Confucius in a frock coat and a top hat? I regard the frock coat as the most horrible vestment ever worn by that absurd animal—man. When I pass a bronze statue of a British statesman buttoned up in a bronze or marble frock coat I cover my eyes and slink by in a paroxysm of horror. There is only one thing worse than a frock coat in bronze or marble and that is a pair of trousers in marble or bronze. I think our sculptors ought to strike against the bronze frock coat and the marble trousers. If they must make eddies of our statesmen let them model them in their pajamas.—London Opinion.

SERVED A FINE DINNER.

The Prince Enjoyed It, and the Famished Guests Politely Smiled.

Prince Leopold, the late regent of Bavaria, was extremely hospitable, receiving many guests and keeping open house, to which came in turn officers, scientists, artists, manufacturers—all the best society in Munich. Himself the wielder of an excellent knife and fork, he took the pleasures of the table seriously and desired that all his guests should do the same.

Some weeks before his last illness he fell asleep at a dinner party immediately after the first course. His guests were restrained by respect for etiquette from waking him, but continued their conversation in low tones. The servants did not dare to continue serving the dinner. The prince continued to sleep and soon began to snore. The guests continued their conversation in somewhat louder tones, but the prince slept for two hours, during which time no one left his place. The guests sat-finished in the same room with a marvelously appointed dinner.

At length Prince Leopold awoke. He gave a hurried glance round the table and saw only a number of well-mannered guests successfully pretending to have noticed nothing. Persuaded that his doze had passed completely unobserved, he said, "Now let us go and take coffee."

The guests rose accordingly and proceeded to the drawing room. They were served with coffee, liqueurs and cigars. The prince, thoroughly refreshed by his sleep, indulged in a great deal of excellent conversation which lasted till midnight. The party then broke up, and the guests departed, furnished with hunger, with an official smile upon their lips.

MARKET LETTERS.

Chicago Live Stock Market.

Oliver S. Green, with Walter S. S. Stock Yards, Chicago, Ill., reports the estimated receipts for Monday, Oct. 13, 1913:

Cattle—21,000.
Hogs—30,000.
Sheep—41,000.

The liberal runs of cattle and a weak and lower market last week failed to hold the run down today and too many cattle came, aside from the yearlings and heavy weights and the general market was in the worst condition noted for a long time. While the sales at good prices were fairly liberal, it is well to note that the supply of such was good. A big drop, $5 to 50c below a week ago and some even more depression in values. Many 10 to 15c under the close last week and a 25c break noted in many cases.

Pat yearlings and good handy weights in the favored class and about steady. Best 900 pound yearlings $9.55, with eight or ten carloads 860 to 950 pounds, $9.40 to $9.50. Prime 1,295 pound Angus, assorted, at $9.50. Liberal runs east and Jewish holiday were bearish factors. Range run 3,000. A weak and 10c lower deal for bulk of crop. Choice yearling heifers steady. Heavy cows in little demand. Canners steady. Bulls unchanged. Calves lower. Stockers of good quality and light weights steady. Feeders, fair to good weights 5 to 15c lower. Range in prices for native beef cattle:

Prime heaves, 1300 to 1700 pounds $9.10 to $9.25.

Choice heaves, 1250 to 1500 pounds, $9.00 to $9.25.

Good to prime yearlings, $9.00 to $9.55.

Medium to good yearlings, $8.75 to $9.00.

Common to fair yearlings, $7.50 to $8.50.

Choice steers, 1100 to 1250 pounds, $8.90 to $9.15.

Inferior steers, 800 to 900 pounds, $6.75 to $9.25.

$8.50 western rangers recently fed below the 8c mark; today a string of the Zimmerman Mexicans at $6.60. Other of the same outfit, $7.00 to $7.15.

Medium and fat native cows, $4.90 to $7.50.

Canners and cullers, $3.50 to $4.75.

Heifers, $5.40 to $9.25.

A few fancy up to $9.35 to $9.50.

Bulls, $4.90 to $7.50.

Common heavy calves to good vealers, $4.25 to $10.50.

Choice to fancy vealers, $10.75 to $11.25.

Selected 900 to 1200 pound feeders, $7.50 to $8.00.

Selected 650 to 800 pound feeders, $7.40 to $7.50.

Inferior stockers to good mixed feeders, $5.20 to $7.00.

Medium to good feeders, 800 to 1100 pounds, $7.00 to $7.65.

The short run of hogs advanced prices 10 to 15c and best average since Oct. 4th. Bulk of sales $8.20 to $8.60. Top $8.75, with the range much narrower than for some time. Supply of pigs large. Market on them opened steady and closed lower.

Mixed packing, $8.05 to $8.35.

Medium and butchers, $8.40 to $8.60.

Kansas City Market.

J. A. Rickart,
Market Correspondent.

Kansas City Stock Yards, Oct. 13.—Dealers in stock cattle and feeders counted on a heavy demand from American Royal show visitors last week, but the demand was not up to expectations and it required heroic concessions, 25 to 35 cents, to move the accumulated supplies at the end of the week. Some specialties sold as high as at any time, fancy stockers bringing up to $8.60; best panhandle yearlings $8.00 to $8.15, but the rank and file caught the decline indicated and good business stockers sold around $6.75; meritorious feeders at $7.00 to $7.25. Exhibition stockers and feeders in the show sold Friday and realized $7.65 to $8.80, including the heifer stuff, and it went to a wide range of territory, at all points of the compass. Receipts today were 23,000 cattle and prices are steady to 10c lower, including a sagging market on stockers and feeders. The market has the same hesitating action it had late last week, the glimmer of the first part of last week having entirely disappeared. Outside buyers are scarce today and as the proportion of thin grades is heavy this week might turn out to be a good week for buyers. If conditions continue adverse to sellers this week, it is regarded as improbable that the weakness will be long lived, for the reason that in a few weeks receipts of cattle will diminish perceptibly. Today Colorado and the panhandle are very prominent in furnishing supplies and loading in those sections is reported heavy this week for the market next week. A feature last week was the short supply of finished beef cattle, and it was evident that quality is fast becoming a more valuable asset. On the open market heavy steers brought $9.25 and yearlings $9.40; top today, $9.20. Prime quality would bring more. Show steers in the fat classes sold at $9.50 to $12.85.

A DIPLOMATIC KNOT.

It Wasn't Tied in a Tangle Just For the Fun of the Thing.

Ever since diplomacy was first invented its most eminent practitioners have expended their best efforts in mystifying if not in actually deceiving their rivals. Ueber Land und Meer cites an amusing anecdote of diplomatic life in the eighteenth century.

In 1741 Count Bestushew was sent by the emperor of Russia to Stockholm to put the question of war or peace to the Swedish government. Upon arriving the count made known his mission and then waited patiently for an answer.

Finally when he had almost given up hope of getting a reply he received a long communication from the Swedish minister of war. Eagerly Count Bestushew opened the letter, for he knew that it contained the long expected answer. But to his despair he found it so encumbered with official phrases and formalities that he could make nothing of its meaning. For two hours he struggled in vain to comprehend the confused document. Then he hastened to the minister of war.

"My dear Count Bestushew," said the minister when the count had explained his difficulty, "I have no authority to communicate to you orally the contents of this document. I could not think of it."

"But I have puzzled over this for two hours, and still I can make nothing of it."

"Pray, do not blame yourself, count," said the minister. "You could hardly expect to unravel in two hours a document that took me two days to knit and knot together."

Painfully Mixed.

A very fashionable young man stopped at a florist's one hot summer day to order a box of flowers sent to his lady love. At the same time he also purchased a design for the funeral of a friend. On the card for the box he wrote:

"Hoping this may help you to bear the heat."

The other card bore the one word, "Sympathy."

Very soon the girl telephoned: "Thank you so much for the flowers. But why did you write 'Sympathy' on the card?"—National Monthly.

Writing Popular Songs.

Only those who have tried it and failed know the disappointments of the song writer striving to induce a publisher to look at his work. For those who would try here is a tip from one who has made good: "If your song is to make a hit the air must be hard to remember, though catchy and pleasing. If it can be whistled by any one who hears it once or twice it will not sell, and the publisher will reject it."—New York Sun.

Getting Mixed in Art.

Occasionally Homer and the other reputable classics nod in the Boston environments.

A woman in Rhode Island wrote to the head of a Boston institution that advances art—all of them are supposed to—and asked when and where she could buy a Gilbert Stuart portrait—subject immaterial.

This recalls the Cleveland woman who said that a woman on Euclid avenue had a "full length Rembrandt" in her collection—but she had forgotten who the artist was.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

LIVER AND BOWELS

Cure Sick Headache, Constipation, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath—Candy Cathartic.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Are you keeping your liver, stomach and bowels clean, pure and fresh with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passage way every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels.

No odds how sick, headachy, bilious and constipated you feel, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a gentle cleansing, too.—Adv.

COMMERCIAL LIGHTING CITY COUNCIL PLAN

ANCE WILL BE PREPARED ALONG THESE LINES.

Commissioner Brennan is Converted his System After Visit to Han-
Plant—Business There
Big Profit—Mr. Newman's positions Are Set Aside.

The adjourned meeting of the council Tuesday afternoon the pal matter discussed was the light situation. The council suggestion of Commissioner Brennan abandoned the plan for 1,000 light bond issue and did City Attorney Thompson and Commissioner Brennan to take the necessary steps to bring before the council a proposition to rebuild the plant to such an extent that it carry commercial lighting. This plan was taken largely as the result of the recent trip of Commissioner Brennan to Hannibal, where he found the city owned light plant year made a profit of about $36,000.

A committee from the Chamber of Commerce—H. J. Rodgers, Dr. E. J. J. Reeve—was present at the idea of that organization as to the securing of an expert engineer to make suggestions as to best equipment. Commissioners present were Supt. Miser, C. Carter, Paul Fritchey, T. M. Tomlinson, Thomas Stevenson, W. A. Dancer, Dr. E. F. Baker, City Attorney Thompson and Col. Huntton. The session was enlivened by various wordy controversies between Commissioner Newman and other members of the council. Mr. Newman charged that the other members not give serious consideration to proposals and that they were paid to put the franchise questions and his proposals up to the people for a vote. He threatened that if these questions did not get to a vote at there would likely be some recall petitions. Mayor Davis in reply to Mr. Newman expressed the wish that the council would take some action as to the franchises he presented. He said that he had been instructed to prepare these franchises, had done so and then that there had been no action. He said further that he could not understand how it was that Mr. Newman figured that Mr. Miser had "put something over" in the mayor's ordinance and had put nothing over in the proposed Newman-Miser agreement. Altogether it was a rather snappy session but the final action would be of a kind which is likely to bring some results in the lighting proposition.

Order of Business.
As soon as the minutes had been read Commissioner Newman presented a petition from residents of Richards street asking authority to put down a ten inch sewer to connect with the sewer on West street. This is to be laid at the cost of the property owners and will become city property when completed. The petition was signed by C. C. Carter, Jacob Davis and others and was referred to Commissioner Newman with power to act.

Mr. Newman said a number of citizens were present and might like to talk about the franchises. Mayor Davis said that he did not believe that the visitors wished to talk about the franchises but would be glad to hear from them if they cared to speak.

Report Chamber of Commerce Action.
H. J. Rodgers said that at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Knollenberg had presented a resolution with reference to a proposed light bond issue and that the Chamber of Commerce had deemed it advisable to appoint a committee to make arrangements for an expert to come to Jacksonville and look over the local situation and make a report. He said it was the wish of the Chamber of Commerce to act in harmony with the council in the matter and that it was the belief of the Chamber of Commerce directors that a report from an expert on municipal lighting might help materially to clear the local situation and make it possible for citizens to unite in some movement looking to better lighting facilities.

J. J. Reeve who was a member of the committee said he had nothing to add to what Mr. Rodgers said except to emphasize that it was the purpose of the Chamber of Commerce to find what aid they could in clearing up the local situation. Dr. Howe also a member of the committee spoke along the same line and said that he would have it clearly understood that he personally was not opposed to a municipal plan in fact that he believed in municipal ownership as a matter of principle.

The Newman-Miser Plan.
At this point Mr. Newman explained the tentative arrangement or agreement he had with Mr. Miser for furnishing gas and electricity at certain rates and for certain conditions in a street car franchise provided the city entered into a contract for the illumination of the streets Mr. Newman said he was in favor of inserting this agreement into the franchises prepared by the city attorney and then submitting the whole matter to the people.

Commissioner Newman stated that Mr. Gardner for the Jacksonville Business Men's Protective Association had asked for the use of the pagoda in Central Park for the public meetings on the last Sunday in October and the first Sunday in November and that Rev. Mr. Spooner for the local option committee had asked for the pagoda on the same dates. The commissioner said that he thought the best way was to grant the petition of Mr. Gardner from 3 to 4 o'clock and that of Mr. Spooner from 4 to 5 and he would so recommend. This recommendation was concurred in by unanimous vote.

Commissioner Newman said that there were several things that had been pending in the council for a long time and in his opinion should be acted upon and disposed of soon.

He mentioned the Mathers street opening ordinance as one of these things and Commissioner Engel said he wanted to join in giving emphasis to having this matter settled as soon as possible. He said the City Attorney had told him that the matter would come up before the county court but that he had seen no order with reference to it at the recent term.

Railroads and Street Lights.
Commissioner Newman said that the matter of forcing the various railroads to furnish lights at its crossings and thus relieve the city of 40 or 50 lamps should have attention. He said that it was his understanding that the railroads had agreed to furnish light but at last accounts had stated that they were unable to come to a satisfactory understanding with the light company. He thought the matter should be given attention by the mayor and the latter was of the opinion that it should properly come in Mr. Newman's department. Mr. Knollenberg made a motion that the railroad crossing lights be referred to the city attorney and Commissioner Newman and as a substitute Mr. Engel suggested that the matter be referred to the mayor, city attorney and Commissioner Newman and such was the order made.

It was reported that most of the residents of North Prairie street had complied with the ordinance requiring them to lay concrete walks and it was the order of the council that the remaining residents be compelled to take action.

Commissioner Brennan reported that the estimated cost of two new tubular boilers for the light plant was $8,000. He said that he also wished to state as a matter of public interest that 69 out of the 217 street lamps which the city owns are out of commission and can not be replaced.

The ordinance providing for a concrete walk on the north side of Grove street extending west from Diamond to Park was given a second reading and adopted.

Power Line To Wells.
Commissioner Knollenberg reported that he had made a contract with Supt. Miser of the Jacksonville Railroad and Light company for the use of the company's power lines from Walnut street to the Widenham and Daub wells and for the use of the transformer and meters there at a cost of $5.00 a month. This report was approved.

Under the head of new business the clerk called attention to the light bond ordinance and the mayor asked the pleasure of the council with reference to its consideration. Mr. Brennan made a motion that the light bond ordinance be discarded. Mayor Davis said this was an unusual motion and the customary way would be to lay the matter over or take no action upon it whatever, but said that he would put the motion in that form if desired. The motion by Mr. Brennan was, after some discussion adopted, Com. Knollenberg voting in the negative.

Mr. Newman then again reviewed the tentative agreement that he had with Mr. Miser and stated that Mr. Miser would include free lights for Nichols park in connection with other conditions of the proposed franchise.

Mayor Davis asked why Commissioner Newman had not included the city hall, also, as the city spends $300 or $400 dollars in a year for lighting that building. Commissioner Newman replied that if the council would meet with him and take the matter up seriously with Mr. Miser that he thought this and other concessions might be secured.

Mr. Newman's Suggestions Filled.
Commissioner Newman also presented his suggestion to raise $100,000 by a bond issue and by utility certificates with which to improve the light plant and the facilities at the Widenham & Daub wells. He said that he was in favor of submitting all of these questions to a vote of the people and suggested that if the council did not manifest more of a willingness to put these things up to the people that some of them were apt to have the recall worked on them.

A motion was made by Mr. Brennan with a second by Mr. Knollenberg that the communication from Com. Newman be rejected. The mayor suggested that the ordinary way would be to receive the communication and place it on file. Mr. Brennan then said he was willing to withdraw his motion, but could not secure the consent of his second, Mr. Knollenberg, and the motion to reject was then put up to the council and defeated, Mayor Davis, Commissioners Engel and Newman voting against it.

Commissioner Engel then made a motion that the Newman petition be received and placed on file and this motion prevailed.

The Hannibal Plant.
Commissioner Brennan said that he had something to present with reference to the light bond situation and explained that he had an object in view in voting to discard the former plans for a light bond issue. He said that he had recently visited the plant at Hannibal, Mo., which is owned by the city and does commercial lighting and was so impressed with the successful operation of that plant that he was ready to recommend that Jacksonville erect a plant large enough to do commercial lighting and that he would so recommend.

Mr. Brennan found on his visit to Hannibal that the plant there the past year showed a profit of $35,991.79 and that the maximum rate charged to consumers is 8c per kilowatt hour and that larger consumers get a rate of 6c. For power so much lower rates are given that the city has thus been able to get some industries there and Mr. Hinton, cashier of one of the largest banks in Hannibal, stated to Mr. Brennan that the rate for power was so low that the Keokuk Dam company had passed Hannibal by as not being a place where they could compete profitably. The city of Hannibal has about 500 street lamps, including some boulevard lamps and the remainder the Tungsten type. The commissioner stated that he had come to the conclusion that the Tungsten system would be the best for Jacksonville and said that he would suggest this system rather than arc lights as previously recommended. He said that Hannibal is known as one of the best lighted cities in the west and the success of municipal ownership has been such that the city has recently completed arrangements for taking over the water works plant which has been owned by a private corporation. This plant was purchased at a cost of $285,000 and an issue of bonds of $360,000 has been secured to pay for the plant and provide for machinery betterments. These are 5 per cent bonds and were floated at par.

The Tungsten System.
Mr. Rodgers said that he agreed thoroughly with Mr. Brennan's ideas as to the advantages of the Tungsten system and thought that the fact that Com. Brennan favored Tungsten lamps would help with the proposition in the public mind.

Dr. Howe also spoke of his visit to the Hannibal plant last spring and said that he was very much interested when he saw in the paper that Mr. Brennan was to inspect this model plant. Mr. Brennan had stated that Mr. Hinton, the bank cashier before referred to, had expressed a willingness to come to Jacksonville and tell about the plant at any time if requested and Dr. Howe suggested it might be possible to get the engineer who had the largest part in equipping the plant, Mr. Hinton does not claim to have any knowledge of electrical affairs, but is thoroughly familiar with the financial condition of the plant and of the showing made.

Anything for Light.
Mr. Brennan said that he was in favor of anything to get more light for the people of Jacksonville and was ready to co-operate in any way which would bring to pass this very much to be desired end. He said, however, that he wanted it clearly understood that there was one thing that he was not in favor of and that was surrendering the municipal plant to any corporation.

The bond of Lee Deatherage as patron for $500 was approved with H. J. Rodgers and J. W. Harrigan as sureties.

Mr. Brennan represented the following interesting facts about the Hannibal plant taken from the annual report of A. M. Nipper, superintendent of the plant, and from other published reports. The Hannibal plant has the exclusive business it here as the city bought out the private company when the municipal plant was established.

GENERAL LEVELING OF PRICES RESUMED

BULK OF SELLING OCCURS DURING THE MORNING SESSION.

Supply is Plainly in Excess of the Demand—Southern Pacific Reaches Lowest Point in Five Years—Diminished Demand and Better Bank Statement Bring Easier Monetary Conditions.

(By Associated Press)

New York, Oct. 14.—The general leveling of prices which overshadowed all other developments in last week's stock market was resumed with some effect today. Prices yielded from 1 to 3 points in many active issues, while stocks of less prominence lost greater ground. The bulk of the selling occurred during the morning session which was followed by extreme dullness and some later recovery, chiefly in United States Steel, Amalgamated Copper and Reading.

While securities were at no time urgently offered, it was plain that supply was somewhat in excess of demand. Among the leaders Southern Pacific was the feature of greatest weakness, its decline to the lowest price in five years being directly associated with the proposed suit of the government for dissolution of Southern Pacific and its more valuable asset, Central Pacific.

Surface conditions point to the rival of a large and aggressive short interest, whose operations have taken on greater scope by reason of numerous adverse factors. Those include the abandonment of the Union Pacific "distribution plan" the Mexican situation and financial conditions abroad.

Local monetary conditions were easier this resulting chiefly from diminished demand and the better bank statement.

AUTO TURNS TURTLE;
MEETS INSTANT DEATHPAUL ZIEGLER OF NEW BERLIN
KILLED IN ACCIDENT.

Steering Wheel of Machine Breaks, Causing Car to Go in the Ditch—Joseph Bergschneider and Charles Watts Escape Injury—Coroner's Inquest Today.

Paul Ziegler, owner of a garage at New Berlin, met death Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock as the result of the steering wheel of his Mitchell automobile breaking, the machine going in the ditch and turning turtle. Joseph Bergschneider of Alexander and Charles Watts of Franklin, who were in the car also, escaped injury.

The three men had been to the public sale of Henry Rickerby's and were returning home. The accident happened about a mile south of New Berlin, directly in front of the residence of John Behl. Before the fatal accident the men had a warning of the condition of the car when it ran into a hedge fence on a slight decline. The car was pulled out and the journey was resumed. The parties had only gone a short distance when the auto again dashed into a ditch and turned turtle. The men were thrown out of the machine and Ziegler fell in such a manner that his neck was broken. He only lived ten minutes after the accident. Except for a few scratches the other two men escaped injury.

Mr. Ziegler was a man well known and highly respected and his sudden death comes as a great shock to the community. He was about 35 years of age and is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Ziegler, and one brother, Maxine, of New Berlin and a sister, Mrs. Freda Bregmann, of Shipman. He also leaves a wife, who was formerly Miss Ida Niehaus. She is a sister of Mrs. W. H. Muehlhausen and Mrs. John Ludwig of this city.

Coroner Rhoades of Springfield was notified and an inquest will be held this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Muehlhausen went to New Berlin last night.

MRS. SILAS CURTIS FALLS
OUT OF SECOND STORY WINDOW

Waverly Woman Has Narrow Escape From Death While Getting Pitcher From Window Sill.

Mrs. Silas Curtis fell from the second story of the Silas Curtis hotel of Waverly Monday night at 10:45, a distance of 18 feet, sustaining severe injuries, but no bones were broken.

Mrs. Curtis had gotten up after retiring to secure a pitcher of water that she had placed on the window sill. Being half asleep, and the window up full length, she pitched headlong out of the opening. She struck the ground on her shoulders and head and was knocked unconscious. Dr. Walter Allen was hastily summoned and a careful examination showed that no bones were broken, although it was difficult to ascertain the extent of her internal injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis conduct the hotel and have been proprietors for some three or four years.

COL. CROWELL FIRED A SALUTE

The Chicago Inter-Ocean is re-publishing items of events happening fifty years ago.
For October 14, 1863, it had this among other things: "There is great rejoicing at Springfield tonight over the Union victories at the recent elections in various states. All day flags have been displayed from the state house, the United States court rooms and many private dwellings. A salute was fired by Col. Crowell at the arsenal and a great jubilation is going forward." Another print: "The superb frame which encloses the likeness of Gov. Yates painted by Mr. ntrobus, and now on exhibit at his gallery was erected by Foster Jenkinson and Keitz. A morning paper says of it: 'It is by far the noblest and most ornate which has yet been made by a Chicago house, and is well worth an examination.'" As showing prices in 1863, the quotation is: "Gold sold here today for $154; wheat advanced to $1.11 corn to 80 cents and oats to 62 cents a bushell."

GRAND OPERA HOUSE

See the Styles Your Great Grandmother Wore

A Ten Thousand Dollar Moving Picture Film, three thousand feet in length, portraying by motion photography the styles of the century in contrast with those of today will be shown to our friends and customers.

The title of the film is "Mrs. Carter Worthington's Dilemma." It portrays in an interesting and fascinating way the difficulties that our women friends encounter in their efforts to procure costumes, gowns and tailored suits that meet the approval of those who know style, fit and tailoring.

Mrs. Worthington has an annoying experience in search for a new costume in which to attend The Annual Costume Pageant of the Delaware Society and her troubles are solved by her bosom friend, Mrs. Lila Laskerfield, who has discovered the merits of PRINTZESS.

During the Costume Pageant, we will introduce on film the styles of the last century beginning with the girl of 1800 and proceeding by 10 year periods up to the present day.

The third reel will portray the visit of Mrs. Lila Laskerfield to the home of PRINTZESS and just what she saw while watching the making of a PRINTZESS garment. On the last reel we show a parade of living models, wearing the styles of the season, the very garments that you will see in our department.

Come—be our guest, admission is by ticket only and no children will be admitted unless accompanied by their parents or guardians.

"Years of Experience Have Proven to Me
That the MAJESTIC Range IS the Best"

"Strange, that for years, I couldn't see that trying to get good work from an old, worn-out range, merely to save the price of a new one, was not true economy. My Great Majestic has more than earned its cost in the saving of fuel alone, because the open seams and joints in my old, worn-out range where the bolts were loose and the putty had crumbled away, made me burn twice as much fuel as necessary. Talk about luck in baking—'luck' is nothing but good oven and my Majestic oven is simply perfect. I can depend on it absolutely every day. I believe father and the children are happier and I know we have better meals at less expense with our Majestic."

When the bridal party entered the church Miss Frances Eck, an aunt of the bride, played the wedding march from Lohengrin and at the intercessional played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The church was very prettily decorated with palms and white flowers.

After the ceremony a four course wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Eck, the residence being decorated with smilax and white roses. Mr. and Mrs. Knochel left for an extended wedding trip in the north and will be at home at 125 Tenth street, Lincoln, after Dec. 1.

Among those from a distance who attended the ceremony were Dandel Knochel of Lincoln, father of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. George Knochel of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Mohrmeier of Nebraska, Mr. and Mrs. George Reicher of Beason, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pfeifer of Atlanta, all brothers and sisters of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Euteneuer of Havana, Frank Kaiser and Mrs. Margaret Colwell of Alexander, Mrs. George Snyder of Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Laux and Mrs. Harvey Cotes of Lincoln, cousins of the bride.

FROM MISSISSIPPI.

A recent letter from William Walter Moore, at Indianola, Miss., has the following regarding crop matters in the Delta region: "We have been having a great deal more rain than we appreciate. Cotton picking is going on fairly well, however, and there has been little damage to the cotton so far, except that the grade is not as good as usual. The market on short cotton has been exceedingly good till just lately; it has gone down about 1/4 cent this week, and I look for it to continue rather weak for awhile, but believe we are going to receive very fair average prices. Staple cotton is not at as high a premium above short cotton as usual, this year. It looks as if we were coming out very well with our crop this year. But I hope we will have a spell of clear weather."

The Delta is more prosperous as a whole than I have ever seen it before, I believe. Taking this latter statement in consideration, it would not seem as if there was the great demand for the government to build levees all along the Mississippi as some might think. It will be remembered that last year, 1912, was a great flood season. But these freshets do not come very close together. The last previous one was in 1897, and one before that in 1882.

MODERN DUTCH FURNITURE

Modern Dutch Furniture

Limbirt's Modern Dutch Arts and Crafts Furniture is built for the requirements of modern use. Comfort, utility and durability together with structural perfection and beauty of design are the prime motives. In its solidity and permanence its reflects Dutch sturdiness and thoroughness, in the beauty of its patterns and richness and color harmony of its leathers and finishes, it preserves the mastery of Dutch Art.

Construction

Every piece of Limbirt furniture is made from solid white oak thoroughly dried, aged and seasoned. Carefully made mortise and pinned tenon joints, solid dowel construction, keyed braces and other sound devices lock its parts together. No structural imitations or subterfuges are tolerated.

The front posts are tenoned through the arms and pinned, the posts projecting through the arms. Stretchers and back slats are joined in the same way, making all joints rigid and strong.

All runners on Limbirt rockers are made from straight pieces of wood bent to the proper curve in powerful steam presses. Rockers thus bent will not break because they have no short cross grain as is found in rockers that are hand sawed.

Hand work is vital in this furniture, for from hand work comes its individuality and charm. Yet we do not wish to convey the idea that it is made entirely by hand. Machinery is used only where it can be employed to improve the product.

Color and Finish

Limbirt's Modern Dutch Arts and Crafts Furniture can be procured in any color or finish that can be produced on white oak. Very characteristic are the popular brown tones of the Genuine Fumed finish obtained by subjecting the wood to the action of ammonia fumes. This finish has a rich, nut brown or autumn-leaf color similar to that of wood colored by age. It possesses a soft translucent sheen which is inimitable and harmonizes with almost any color scheme.

Spanish Morocco Leather

The leather used on Limbirt's Arts and Crafts is made from imported goat skins, it is soft and pliable as well as firm and strong. The natural grain surface lends itself to beautiful blendings of colors which are fast and it will withstand anything but misuse and is guaranteed for years of service.

Sanitary Spring Seat Cushion

Highly tempered springs are employed in the cushions of chairs, rockers and settees. For the seats these springs are double deck. The upper springs respond readily to a lightweight person and the lower springs are strong enough to support a person of the heaviest weight. These seat cushions contain three times as many springs as are usually found in the same size seats. These cushions are loose, light, clean and sanitary and as easily removed as a feather pillow.
